Young Stags Beaten By Rivals Chesterfield

With the senior players celebrations still in full swing, Paul Cox and his management team asked the youth team to fill in for the reserves last night as our second string took on rivals Chesterfield. The youngsters relished the challenge to impress and under the watchful eye of Ryan Tafazolli on the side lines, we're on the wrong end of a 3-0 score line against there more experienced hosts.

In terms of chances it was a one sided affair but the young Stags can take away from the match a spirited defensive display, holding the match level until the break.

Keeper Ryan Hopkins was naturally busy throughout but earned the man of the match award, pulling off some smart stops and commanding his defence well.

The hosts were rampant from the off but squandered numerous chances to open the scoring throughout the first half, Jack Waddle dragged wide on eight minutes before Scott Boden failed to keep his effort down moments later following a mistimed header from Birch.

Man of the match Hopkins made two smart saves to keep the scores level as the match progressed, first denying Craig Clay in a 1 v 1 situation before springing down to his left to keep our a curler from Danny Whitaker - at the other end Josh Barrington, the home keeper, had little to do but he was called into action on 34 minutes, plucking Jake Green's curling effort out of the evening air following a dominant right sided charge.

After the break it didn't take long for the hosts to grab the opener as Whitaker vollied beyond Hopkins on 52 minutes following a well weighted chipped pass from Jonathan Wafula. Barrington then kept the hosts lead intact on 62 as Stags found an opening through Thomas, hit man Joe Flint unleashed a good effort however he couldn't beat the legs of Barrington.

Jacob Hazel doubled the hosts lead on 69 minutes, firing in with his left boot as the hosts weaved there way through the middle and then hit the third and final goal, in the same fashion, four minutes from full time.
